

Otago Championships – Caversham Highlights

Caversham had a very successful two days in last weekend's Otago Championships.

Daniel Balchin came 1st in both the 1500 metres and 800 metres for senior men.

Hamish Cooper won the boys 14 1500metres and was 2nd in the 800 metres.

Nicole Bradley won both the Discus and shot putt events for women 17 to 19 years. Nicole also won the Senior womens shot.

Claire Giles was in rare form over the weekend winning the womens 100, 200, and 400 metre events for Women over 50, setting an Otago Record for her age group in the 400 metre event. Claire also won a field event title in the long jump.

Maria Sleeman won the 800 metres in the Women 50 division.

Other athletes to compete well over the weekend were Alison Newall Bevan Stevens, Ben Anderson, Ken Fahey and Tony Payne.
